RECOMMENDED

Horinouchi
Fried Chicken

It is a popular dish, called "Hori Kara" and loved by locals. It is an amazingly delicious tender meat full of flavors. Right out the fryer is the best!

Greater Amberjack bowl, and Sashimi

You can enjoy fresh Greater Amberjack in various recipes at Oukan, a restaurant managed by Tarumizu City Fisheries Cooperative Association.

"Tarumizu Batake
Green Bean Creamy Soup"

It's a healthy and easy-to-eat green bean soup in powdered form.

"Sakurajima Biyu-ton Pork"

Meat from pigs raised with natural mineral hot springs water is juicy and light. The delicious pork has a mild taste and a touch of sweetness to it.

"Tarumizu Batake"
Shrimp Soup

It is a refreshing Japanese style soup with yuzu. You can't find this flavor any other place, but here.

Welcome to Tarumizu!

1 Michi-no-Eki "Tarumizu Yuttari-kan"

Tarumizu Yuttari-kan is a roadside rest area where you can enjoy the magnificent Sakurajima and abundant sea of Kinko bay. The 60-meter-long footbath soothes your fatigue from the trip.

2 Michi-no-Eki "Tarumizu Hamabira"

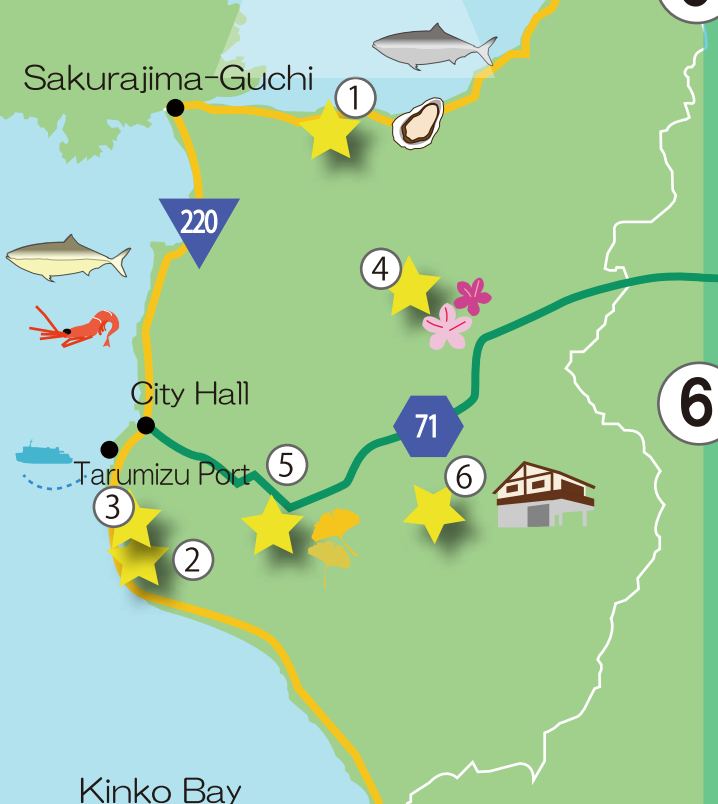

Tarumizu Hamabira, a roadside rest area, provides visitors a 180-degree view of Sakurajima, Mt. Kaimon and Kinko bay. It offers cafes, restaurants and markets along with a park where the family can enjoy together.

3 Marine Park "Tarumizu"

This is a marine park attached to Tarumizu Hamabira where you can experience various marine sports. You can enjoy a variety of marine sports such as standup paddle boarding (SUP) and canoeing.

4 "Takatoge-tsutsujigaoka Park" Azaleas Park at Takatoge Pass

There are as many as 100,000 azaleas from about a hundred species in this park. The best time to see the blossoms is from late April to early May. During that time, the entire hill turns a pink color. You can enjoy a panoramic view from the hilltop.

5 "Tarumizu Thousand Ginkos Garden"

A couple live in Tarumizu City has been cultivating and taking care of 1200 ginkgo trees on their land since 1978. In early December, foliage of these ginkgo trees turns golden color and it looks like a golden carpet is covering the entire mountain.

6 "Mori-no Eki Tarumizu" Tarumizu Sarugajo Gorge

This rest area in the forest provides visitors opportunities to connect with nature and enjoy canyoneering, fishing and cookouts.
